

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

August 4, 2011

H.R. 2633 Appeal Time Clarification Act of 2011

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on July 27, 2011

H.R. 2633 would codify a recent amendment to the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. Current law allows 60 days to file a notice of appeal for civil cases if the United States or a federal officer is a party; however, it is unclear whether this time period applies if current or former federal employees are sued in an individual capacity in connection to their federal employment. This legislation would clarify that it does.

Based on information from the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, CBO estimates that H.R. 2633 would have no significant impact on the federal budget. Enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

H.R. 2633 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Martin von Gnechten. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo.
